

Figure 2: Cooperation per period in the low and high Raven sessions. The two panels report the averages computed over observations in successive blocks of ten rounds of all high and all low Raven sessions, aggregated separately. The top panel reports the average of cooperation in the first round (of a repeated game) that occurs in the block, the bottom the average of cooperation for all rounds of the game in that block. The bands represent the 95% confidence intervals.

